

SIX REASONS TO RE-ELECT BARBARA BOWEN AND THE NEW CAUCUS SLATE

1. Delivered a good contract before the economic crash, while CUNY Alliance said it was a bad deal and can't even get its provisions straight. (go to www.psc-cuny.org/ContractJuly08/ContractMOA071708.pdf)
2. Nine years of wage increases at or above inflation, while CUNY Alliance's only contribution is to repeat lies about our wage increases. (go to www.newcaucus.org/raisesandinflation.htm)
3. Advances for all members (tenured and untenured faculty, HEOs and CLTs, adjuncts, grad students, CLIP teachers and retirees), while CUNY Alliance pits one group against others and says money spent on some member's benefits is a "waste." (go to www.newcaucus.org/WhoWeAre.htm)
4. Protected Welfare Fund benefits through good contract negotiations and good management, while CUNY Alliance's ignorance of Welfare Fund financing would leave the Fund bankrupt and gut benefits. (go to www.newcaucus.org/NCrestoresWF.htm)
5. Built a progressive and politically powerful union that has won greater funding for CUNY, protected TAP funding for our students, and taken a leading role in the State and National labor movement on higher education and social justice issues, while CUNY Alliance has done nothing to advance CUNY's budget and whose presidential candidate is a Republican Party activist who supports the small government, disinvestment policies of the Republican Party, destructive of public institutions like CUNY. (go to www.newcaucus.org/PDF/FinalHomeMailer.pdf)
6. Won good contracts with innovative provisions based on member mobilization, building alliances, and skilled negotiation, while CUNY Alliance is a no show in contract campaigns, a no show political work, derides member mobilization, and has no strategy to win at the bargaining table.
